

Candles

Ghost Town

So sad, too bad
They'll never understand
This life is so unplanned
I can't (I can't, I can't, I can't)
Feel right when I'm left meltin' in the night
I manifest your aura, and your spirit in this way I'll light a candle for you
Strike a match to the mood
I'll light a candle for you
For you, yeah you
I'll light a candle for you
For you Shadows from the smoke is giving me visions
I seen just where you been
Your wick is wearin' thin
Your past is in bodied in this wax
Do you expect this to last
It's dripping away too fast I'll light a candle for you
Strike a match to the mood
I'll light a candle for you
For you, yeah you
I'll light a candle for you
For you Now I've come to terms
With where I stand
I don't need a reason to say that I can't
To say that I can't So when I light this candle
I know I'll find you again
I'll light a candle for you
Strike a match to the mood
I'll light a candle for you
For you, yeah you
I'll light a candle for you
For you For you
Yeah you, I'll light a candle for you
For you
