

Reckless Girl

This Frontier Needs Heroes

It would take a very reckless girl
To fall to fall to fall in love with me
and if I knew a lot about this world
There would still be some mystery Reckless abandon is my symphony
I bet Beethoven would have like to seen If a piece of art is all that you can be Oh my dear what a heavy price for me It will take a very restless girl
To fall to fall to fall in love with me
and if I knew a lot about this world
There would still be some misery Sometimes it seems it's all about the money and when I laugh it's not because it's funny if you don't have the nerve to call my bluff
I hate to be so right about this stuff It will take one mess of a girl
To fall to fall to fall in love with me
and if I knew a lot about this world
I could still use some sympathy No one said it's gonna be easy
No one said I don't want to make it right but if it happens to me again tonight
I guess I'll just go home and be alright It will take one heck of a girl
To fall to fall to fall in love with me
and if I knew a lot about this world
That would beat the heck right outta me
