

Take My Hand

The Perfect Measure

I know that song makes you think of him.
And it tears me to know that you still might go back again.
Please hear me calling you.
I want you to know that it's true,
I can't live without you.

So take my hand, may I have this last dance.
Cuz it's raining outside and we don't live forever,
So take my hand.

Give me your heart girl I will keep it safe and sound.
I promise I will never let it hit the ground.
I'll keep it all patched up so you will finally see.
That me and you girl we were always meant to be.

So take my hand, may I have this last dance.
Cuz it's raining outside and we don't live forever,
So take my hand.

And I know it may be hard to get through,
But baby go where your heart tells you to.
And now there's only one thing left to say,
Is that you truly make my day.
So give yourself a smile,
For doing what you've done.
I know he tore your heart into pieces.
But girl I'll fix it up if you want.

So take my hand, may I have this last dance.
Cuz it's raining outside and we don't live forever,
So take my hand.

---

Lyrics submitted by Brooklyn.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>