

Find the Path

Acrimony

Look into my eyes
I see bizarre lights
Look into my eyes
Look into my mind
I see bizarre lights
Look into my mindLook into my eyes
Look into my eyes
Look into my eyesWe pay the price for thinking
We pay the price for thinking
We pay the price for thinking
We pay the price for thinkingIs this what grows at the back of my mind
Looking down through your eyes
I just feel so fucking down
Give me some ValiumDo it, do it
Give me some Valium
