

Ocean City

Kurt Vile

You've got a best friend, don't know how You've got a best friend now
You've got a best friend, don't know how You've got a best friend now You can take him out for drinks and if he stinks makes you think maybe baby, I love you more But I've gotta have some friends when you're gone for to hear me cry don't I
You've got a best friend, don't know how You've got a best friend Monday morning comes, don't leave me now Woke up this morning, don't know what I said Now I'm walking 'round in circles, baby, bread in my head They say ocean city's the place to be but can you get me there for free? There's always a tunnel at the end of the line
You can wear it back to 1929 Cause if you never see me again, I'll leave all the cash that I can Buy yourself a drink and if it stinks makes you think Maybe baby, I love you more But I've gotta have some friends when you're gone for to hear me cry don't I? You've got a best friend don't know how you've got a best friend now (x5)
