Flesh And Bone

Brendan Benson

Little lamb that you are, now you've wandered too far
And you can't find your car
You don't know where you've been when the night closes in
You feel it under your skin, you won't let me inYou can switch it off and on, you were here but now you're gone
From your head down to your toes, it's just how the shock wave goes
And you're runnin' all the way, when will you be here to stay
You were with me all the time, now you're out of sight and out of mindAnd you look like a dove, something sent from above
Always in and out of love
You try to run but you slip, now you got a bloody lip
You just can't get a grip, you won't let me inYou can switch it off and on, now you're here and now you're gone
From your head down to your toes, it's just how the shock wave goes
And you're runnin' all the way, when will you be here to stay
You were with me all the time, now you're out of sight and out of mindLittle lamb that you are, now you've wandered too far
And you can't find your car
You don't know where you've been, when the night closes in
You feel it under your skin, you won't let me in, yeahYou can switch it off and on, you were here but now you're gone
From your head down to your toes, it's just how the shock wave goes
And you're runnin' all the way, when will you be here to stay
You were with me all the time, now you're out of sight
