Aquatic Fanatic (Demo)

Orange Goblin

Riding a crystal shell into the deepest sky
Heading into the abyss, watching the watcher's eye
Drowning in memories, falling eternally
Lord of Aquarium, my tidal fantasyIn search for mystery, we find insanity
The lady of the sea reaches her hand to meDrifting through the corals of waters unknown in a cosmic submarine
It's so serene
Living in the colors of the ocean, taste the blue and smell the green
You know what I meanDragging me under leagues
Exploring hidden seas
Saying I'm sure to please
For I hold the silver keysReach the sunken city, hear the silence, see the lights
You know it's right
It must be rightTouch the ancient treasure, feel the pleasure and delight
That's what I like
That's what I like
AlrightSonic rays are shining through clear water and a rainbow's growing
To the pot of gold that lies beyond this land, the water's flowing
Chase the aqua-dragons way up high to find the sirens dancing
Rise upon the surface of the ocean, see the shores advancingLet's go
