

Out the Door

Mishka

If the time should come
You don't want to see me anymore
Just you say the words and I'll walk out the door
Yes, I'll walk out the door If it's starting then it's starting
If it's ending then it's ending
If it's starting then it's starting
If it's ending then it ended But should the day arrive
You don't want to walk up in the hill
With I and you're satisfied by all of the cheap thrills
And joy rides, well I won't cry, no I'll just wonder why If the time should come
You don't want to see me anymore
Just you say the words and I'll walk out the door
Yes, I'll walk out the door
