Where Angels Die

Primal Fear

The dark is calling in the absence of light
There's nothing left to pray
The curse is moving and there's still fear
It's so silent I can't hear you breathStill forgotten, still beloved
No more dreams
Angel wings, a devil's heart and you
No more love and no more tearsJust silent screams
I'm living in the shadows
Lost in fear until I disappear
To the place where angels dieAm I dreaming? And am I still alive?
This is what you call hell
It didn't help to drink your blood
I was shattered deep inside
So I bleed, I bleedStill forgotten, still beloved
No more dreams
Angel wings, a devil's heart and you
No more love and no more tearsJust silent screams
I'm living in the shadows
Lost in fear until I disappear
To the place where angels dieThe dark is calling in the absence of light
There's nothing left to prayStill forgotten, still beloved
No more dreams
Angel wings a devil's heart and you
No more love and no more tearsJust silent screams
I'm living in the shadows
Lost in fear until I disappear
To the place where angels die
To the place where angels die
To the place where angels die
