

A Thousand Thoughts (Pride)

Adore Me Not

One look beyond the stars tears all the oceans apart
Razorblades joining the feast
Their dirty little secrets standing right beside of me
Was that something real in front of me
when I looked back
And I'm already sleeping
Far from everything that keeps me here
Misery can't touch me anymore
In this world, I can't escape no more
Take me away from here
Step by step and the holes are almost near Finding the key to every door
Wanting you, I've wanted you to stay for evermore
Was that something real in front of me
when I looked back
And I'm already sleeping
Far from everything that keeps me here
Misery can't touch me anymore
In this world, I can't escape no more
Tried so hard to kill the pain but in the end it's all in vain
Anything that still remains
All in Vain
Anything that still remains
All in Vain
I see it clearly now
Just stay for evermore
I see it clearly now just stay for evermore
Lost in the world of a thousand thoughts
I will lay me down
Holding your heart here in my hand
I will go to sleep
I will lay me down
I will lay me down
