

I Hope You Think Of Me

Owl City

She wound the thread around the pieces of, my broken heart

Had left me to believe

That girls don't wanna, girls don't wanna leave

The starry nights without a fear of heights

I can't recall, but I learned after all

That girls don't wanna, girls don't wanna fall

As you doze off tonight, I'll toss and turn

As your sweet dreams dissolve, I'll crash and burn

While your heart flutters free, I still can't breathe

As you stir in your sleep, I hope you think of me

A blissful way she whispered in my ear

Before she left, had me so convinced

That girls don't wanna, girls don't wanna leave

And Juliet's romantic balcony

Wears out the wall, and I learned after all

That girls don't wanna, girls don't wanna fall

As you doze off tonight, I'll toss and turn

As your sweet dreams dissolve, I'll crash and burn

While your heart flutters free, I still can't breathe

As you stir in your sleep, I hope you think of me

I feel alone

I hope my ghost, never leaves

'Cause when I'm home

Your painful memory, is always haunting me

As you doze off tonight, I'll toss and turn

As your sweet dreams dissolve, I'll crash and burn

While your heart flutters free, I still can't breathe

As you stir in your sleep, the thought is killing to me

When I see you around, my eyes get wide

When you race through my mind, I die inside

While your heart flutters free, I still can't breathe

As you stir in your sleep, I hope you think of me

I hope you think of me, I hope you think of me
