

Car Confessions

Young M.A.

Uh, I'm smoking on the cat piss Swerving through the traffic Listening to the rap shit
My window ain't tinted So nigga notice me 4 braids, Yankee fitted Yeah nigga know its me, I'm everywhere comfortable But I'm still attentive, a young nigga with money would make nigga offended, I ain't flashy I'm classy But ain't stupid either, never show off to niggas that's hungry and eager,
My brother's keeper, I'm loyal its all in my demeanor
A true believer, believe when they didn't believe her, that's why I don't let opinions affect me, I do what I wanna do, they do or they don't expect me, they expect me to give up, I almost did, Things went from fast, to slow motion, I was, losing focus, stuck on that evil potion, it was, smooth onna surface But underneath it was broken, hoping to find hope, in this homeless world we live in, what you give is what you given Gotta make wise decisions, gotta stay tunnel vision Gotta avoid collision, keep scratching the surface, and keep yo palms hitching, gotta pay mom a visit, damn it been awhile, I been working, she keep telling me, she miss her child, I find myself passing her house, then I spend around, she say I'm always movin', MA I just can't sit around On my ass, cus the cash ain't gon come to us When we was down who gave a dime or gave a fuck for us, so instead of makin it hard, I made it fun for us, make it easy, so when you need it, you just run to us, but its a lot of pressure I'm tryna stick and move through this shit Fixin these bumps onna road, so I can just cruise through this shit Livin my life onna road, I'm tryna get use to this shit, and when they throw dirt, I just acts like a broom to this shit Tryna stay true to this shit, even when they lie on me, world on my shoulders My girl can't even cry on me God watching over me, The Devil probably spy on me, I been going through some shit, Kenneth keep a eye on me,

I know it been a drought, but to my fans, don't go dry on me
If you wanna picture, take a picture, don't get shy on me I'm here to inspire, I admire that you admire me, I been Inna dark but I promise you'll see a brighter me
I'm SORRY

Uh, I came straight out the pussy with a microphone, Boy I swear i couldn't leave that mic alone

Everybody clear the room

I like to write alone

I'm in my zone, bass bouncin

Off the Styrofoam

I'm never in between

I'm either hot or cold

Can't be a loser

I maneuver like I got a clone

I'm out here in these streets

Like i ain't got a home

And you barely hear from me

Like i ain't got a phone

Cause its no days off

Its not days off

I know it sounds a little painful, but it pays off

Social sites was distracting,

So I stayed off, spoke to God then me and Satan had a face off

I swear my life was like a rocket, then it takes off

First I plotted, then I got it couldn't wait long

I put the pedal to the metal then took the brakes off

And I kept it A1, like the steak sauce
