The Comeback

Shout Out Louds

I'm kind of tired
'Cause you wouldn't let me sleep last night
I'm a reasonable man
But I can't believe what's on your mind
And the past three weeks
Were the saddest weeks
And the words you said
Oh, they made me weak
I'm out of my mind
I'm about to crack
So let's call this the comeback
I've been pushed around
And I'm not gonna get pushed this time
The time is mine
But I can't believe what's on your mind
And the past three weeks

Were the saddest weeks
And the words you said
Oh, they made me weak
I'm out of my mind
I'm about to crack
So let's call this the comeback
Let's call this the comeback, again
Let's call this the comeback
Let's call this the comeback, again
Let's call this the comeback
Let's call this the comeback
The comeback, the comeback
Let's call this the comeback, the comeback
Let's call this the comeback
Oh, let's call this the comeback
