

Cold (feat. Sam Kang)

Magnetic North & Taiyo Na

I know you often feel forgotten in our family talking real is awkward we don't say I love you we say are you hungry and when we grow up we move away across the country it's funny all the ways we show our love is so cold when the world is cold enough but trust nothing means more than the family it rains and it pours but you'll always have a canopy always have a sanctuary always have a place to crash you never even have to ask you can show up at my door with your bags all packed and whoever broke your heart imma cap his "@$$" I'm sorry I don't mean to be so protective but I'm the eldest it's practically in my essence what were you expecting you're the meaning in my life and now you no longer have to read between the lines cause You're every part of my life and I want to tell you what I like for you should never be never be cold feel that warmth in your soul and I want to hold you, you alone for you should never be never be cold Brother brother, don't fret get in there love love and war war has been fair it's been a long road for us here our past prepares us for what's near for every little tear you got my shoulder every single year please don't get colder go grow glow hold my hopes up broke from same molds our souls is one love my bruh, we've been through nightmares when ma broke down remember right there at the dinner table hands held for life dear you me and mama the cats on the side chairs I'm here for you forever more you happy is my pride and heaven's door our bond can never be broken so play this song whenever frozen There's nothing I can say There's nothing I can say
To change the warmth you bring To change the warmth you bring

No smile that I can make No smile that I can make To let you know how much I love you Love you There's nothing I can say There's nothing I can say
To change the warmth you bring To change the warmth you bring
No smile that I can make No smile that I can make To let you know how much I love you Love you You're every part of my life and I want to tell you what I like
for you should never be never be cold
feel that warmth in your soul
and I want to hold you, you alone for you should never be never be cold Hope for the holidays in the thick of winter Traveling from faraway visiting my sister Soon as I get through the door her kids clutch my knees First thing they say is "Tio never leave!" Damn talk about guilt trip to the fullest who could ever resist this ridiculous cuteness I'm clueless you got me, let me rephrase the truth kids you got me, forever always and now my big brother's been truly blessed with a little pudgy loving miracle princess yes I lift her from her crib and all she does is just frown but holding onto dreams is never truer than now and blaow Just like that my life changes Puts in perspective what is really worth saving Everything for them, my greatest inspiration Arielle, Andres, and Ramie my angels You're every part of my life and I want to tell you what I like
for you should never be never be cold
feel that warmth in your soul
and I want to hold you, you alone for you should never be never be cold There's nothing I can say To change the warmth you bring
No smile that I can make
To let you know how much I love you There's nothing I can say
To change the warmth you bring
No smile that I can make
To let you know how much I love you
