

Ladies and Gentleman

Hot Hot Heat

We never wanted him here
He showed up anyway
He never would leave us alone
We never wanted him here
He showed up anyway

But maybe that's ok Soon this gentleman was barking louder when his biting harder didn't earn him respect
But lately we've been too proud to admit that we all might miss him just a bit now that he's packed up and left

What did we do? And everybody's got the same story:

We never wanted him here
He showed up anyway
He never would leave us alone
We never wanted him here
He showed up anyway
But maybe that's ok We never wanted him here
He showed up anyway
He never would leave us alone
We never wanted him here
And now he's gone for good
But maybe we've made a mistake
