Disillusion

Unearth

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

So much disdain
So much hatred
Disillusion with this world;
Betrayal is the focal point of my dissension
I tried to keep it right
But with no remorse
I was left to die in the gutter
Nothing remains to strive forNo more
Consumed by the binds of failure
No more
Where the fuck did I go wrong?
Lies; Lies
Repulsed by all you stand for
Lies; Lies
Faith failed meStabbed in the back
The blood's still warm, the blood's still warm
These fallacies
They've claimed the best and shown the worst
- They've shown our worst
They all strive to make their mark
It's still Impostors Kingdom
You failed me
Now I will fail youNo more
Consumed by the binds of failure
No more
Where the fuck did I go wrong?
Lies; Lies
Repulsed by all you stand for
Lies; Lies
You fucking failed me.So much disdain
So much hatred
Disillusion with this world;

Betrayal is the focal point of my dissension
I tried to keep it right
But with no remorse
I was left to die in the gutter
Nothing remains to strive forNo more
Consumed by the binds of failure
No more
Where the fuck did I go wrong?
Lies; Lies
Repulsed by all you stand for
Lies; Lies
Faith fucking failed me.
