Pray to the simple machines
That do not rely on belief
The softness of steam and of gears
Their energy is surely pure The kindness of engines is not in you
Claire you do it perfectly The water is all on it's own
It goes where it wants to go
The telephone can't dry it up
And sleeplessness won't make it slow If opposites are the best chance of hope
Claire you do it perfectly The line straight to defeat is based upon belief
That's how we are sustained
On pretty girls make graves Sweetly you punctuate weakness
Claire you do it perfectly
The highway it helps to forget
The straightness it doesn't betray
It lies on in where it lies
It's courtesy is it exists That's how we are sustained
On pretty girls make graves
The line straight to defeat is based upon belief Confirmed and cataloged
Your lies
Claire you do it perfectly
