Utopian Blaster

Cathedral

Today the sun refused to shine
On this war infested land
Beyond our sky, the Lord of life
Sending crossbones tumbling downCitadel on a traveling stone
Magic wisdom our only home
As flesh impostors fight the master
Of forces to them unknown, yeahBlinded by the power
Life spell castor
Utopian blaster
Peace your masterSculptured space in plastic hands
Evil empire of mankind
Blazing light from the sword of Mars
Shall destroy this Utopian farceGiant mass of the children high
Sleeping on beds of air
Limitations we've unbound
Come and join us well take you there, yeahStruck ever after
Life spell castor
Utopian blaster
Peace your master nowLegend of Earth after sleep in dusted grace
Time has ceased, our fortune shall begin
Bathe in fountains of laughter
Cleansed by end time raptureEmbrace the final dawn
Fatal glow, sirens in the wind
Conquest oh, we shall capture, yeahWe race upon the unicorn
To a land of towers green
While soldiers march into the void
Guided by man's funeral handGolden souls riding on the wind
From the path of nature sinned
Cosmic army military
Our weapons be only love, yeahStruck by the power
Life spell castor
Utopian blaster
Face your master now
