Girl Named Vegas

Calico System

Where, where did you go
I'm standing alone, you don't know
The first time I laid my eyes on you
I should have told you
This love can't wait one minute longer
And if I hesitate my chance is overAnd if I weren't so shy, I'd ask for your phone numberThis love can't wait one minute longer
And if I hesitate my chance is overI'll sacrifice my lifeThe moon, the stars, the sky and everything between
My world revolves around you
You don't know, you don't knowMy love, you can take it all, my loveAnd if I get butterflies, they tattoo their mark onto my loveTo keep this inside, silence breeds violence in my mindWhere, where did you go
I'm standing alone, you don't know
