Wheels

Enuff Z'nuff

I'm a little boy blue I'm the man on the moon
I'm a bit freaked out and a hair out of tune
And they tell me that I might just lose it soonI'm a guy with a little and ten's not enough
But after 19 you're hooked on a stuff
You float away just like a big balloonAnd sometimes nothing's colder than the sun
On a bad day
Sometimes nothing warms you
Like the rain yeahI'm a wheel, wheels turn
Rolling over anything in front of me
Like a wheel, wheels burn
Burning like the soul that's inside of me
I'm a wheel, wheels turn and take me awayI've been up I've been down, I've been in I've been out
A confident smile and a heart full of doubt
I'm working till I'm oh so tired outI make sisters and brothers with everyone
We howl at the moon and run from the sun
And lately I don't know what it's all aboutOh love has got me down before
That I have recovered
And some how we've finding
Easy way yeahI'm a wheel, wheels turn
Rolling over anything in front of me
Like a wheel, wheels burn
Burning like the soul that's inside of me
I'm a wheel, wheels turn take me awayI'm a little boy blue, I'm the man on the moon
I'm a bit freaked out and a hair out of tune
They tell me that I might just lose it soonOh sometimes nothing's colder than the sun
On a bad day
And sometimes nothing warms you
Like the rain yeahI'm a wheel, wheels turn
Rolling over anything in front of me
Like a wheel, wheels burn
Burning like the soul that's inside of meLike a wheel, wheels turn
Rolling over anything in front of me
Like a wheel, wheels burn
Burning like the soul that's inside of me
Like a wheel, wheels turn, take me away
Come and take me awayI'm a wheel, wheels turn
No we know, wheels burn
I'm a wheel, wheels turn
Now wheels will turn you away yeahI'm a wheel, wheels turn

No we know, wheels burn
I'm a wheel
