Pour Me

Doug Seegers

Pour me another strong one, my baby just walked in the door
Tearing out my heart with her new love as she waltzes across that floor
Pour me another quick one I can't take this misery
Lucky him, lovely her, Pour mePour me another sad one, I'm swallowing my pity
Cause tonight she looks so pretty, satisfied
Pour me a shot of courage, I'm gonna ask him to his face
How it feels to steal my woman from my sidePour me another double cause I'm single once again
Pour me and leave my bottle cause I'm losing my only friend
Bartender keep on pouring til I'm blind til I can't see
Lucky him, lovely her, Pour mePour me another double cause I'm single once again
Pour me and leave my bottle cause I'm losing my only friend
Bartender keep on pouring til I'm blind til I can't see
Lucky him, lovely her, Pour meI used to dance with my darling now I'm just her used to be Lucky him, lovely her, Pour mePour me another strong one
