Young Again

Kasper BjÃ¸rke

Time is disgraceful,
We're all just watching these days fall apart,
And silence seems wasteful
When I know what's coming for me in the dark.'Cause I am young, again
Thanks a lot.
I'll be young again,
Round round.
I am young again,
Thanks a lot.
I am young again,
Round round.Jobs are disgraceful,
Think that they're suffering from a Clark.
I size my intention,
It just seem small in the wrong rights.'Cause I am young, again
Thanks a lot.
I feel young again,
Round round.
I am young again,
I am young again,
I feel young again,
Round round.
Thanks for my spot.
Thanks for my spot.I am young again,
I am young again,
I feel young again,
Round round.
Thanks for my spot
