

Love Colours

The Pretenders

The sun goes down
The sky turns black
I can hardly wait for you
I can't believe the madness
In everything you do
I used to dream in black and white
Now I see the world in a different light

Your love colors, colors everything
Your love colors, colors everything
Your love colors, colors everything
Your love colors, colors everything

Oh oh

Now come in to me
Fill me and fill me
Show me your colors baby
Your love colors

I slept in fear
And woke in pain
Till you came in close to me
I was cold
Like frozen rain
Your kiss melted me
You speak your mind just like a child
Won't be defined by when you smile

Your love colors, colors everything
Your love colors, colors everything
Your love colors, colors everything
Your love colors, colors everything

Oh oh

Now come in to me
Fill me and fill me
Show me your colors baby
Your love colors

Your love colors everything
Your love colors everything
Your love colors everything
