

Find Your Way

Authority Zero

What did you want? What were you waiting to see?
Just take a look around, you'll find the same old story
What did you want? What were you waiting to see?
Just take a look around, you'll find the same old story
I'm unconscious again finding a means to an end
I'm trying to forget all about forgotten So what's the use in making lies up when promises have dried up
Go out in the end
Living in your misfortune and dying to break away someday
Find your way, find your way The more I walk around these streets
The more they all look this way
Crooked situations on a different day
How'd I survive? With friends by my side Now pick me up to watch me fall down
Bottled up dreams will make it alright
I've got to make a choice and hope I make it right
It always seems to come around and kick you down
To let you know that nothing comes free I don't know where I'm going and can't wait to understand
In times like this, I vouch for myself because I know no one else can I find myself in question, sometimes I lose control
No big surprise I'm sure, just saying I'm aware, this I know So what's the use in making lies up when promises have dried up
Go out in the end
Living in your misfortune and dying to break away someday
Find your way, find your way What did you want? What were you waiting to see?
Just take a look around, you'll see the same old story
I'm unconscious again finding a means to an end
I'm trying to forget all about forgotten So what's the use in making lies up when promises have dried up
Go out in the end
Living in your misfortune and dying to break away someday
Find your way, find your way Would someone tell me what is this?
Only my existence, the only way to face this is bumps and bruises
No resistance, I've got to try and face this
The more I pick up my feet, the more I land on my face It's dimmer situations, no resistance, I've got to try and face this
Bumps and bruises, tell me, what is this thing that I'm faced with?
No more excuses, bound to find your way
