

Let Go of Me

Nate Sallie

Holding on to everything
That the world was handing me
When I thought to myself
What does it matter, yeah I sought of had a self history
Depended on my own two feet
When I fought to myself
I need a ladder, yeah To climb so high, I'm touching the sky
I'm floating away from all my pride that I denied, yeah
Now I know the remedy, exactly what I'm gonna need
So here's goodbye, am I Let go of me
I threw away all the yesterdays
That were telling me I could never change my ways
I'd always stay the same But now I know
I'm on the road that will lead me on
To the place that I belong in You, oh yes, it's true
I'm finally free to be me Completely indestructible, no longer unreliable
My life, it's not my own, it's even better, yeah
Created to fulfill a dream that You planning deep inside of me
My life, it's not my own, it's Yours forever, yeah Now I know the remedy, exactly what I'm gonna need
So here's goodbye, I'm dying Let go of me
I threw away all the yesterdays
That were telling me I could never change my ways
I'll always stay the same But now I know
I'm on the road that will lead me on
To the place that I belong in You, oh yes, it's true
I'm finally free to be me Let me hear you say na, na, na
Let me hear you say na, na, na
One more time na, na, na
Na, na, na Let go of me
I threw away all the yesterdays
That were telling me I could never change my ways
I'll always stay the same But now I know
I'm on the road that will lead me on
To the place that I belong in You, oh yes, it's true
I'm finally free to be, yeah Don't you be telling me
I could never change I'm on the road that will lead me on
I'm finally free to be me My life, it's not my own, it's Yours forever
