

Bastard In Love

Black Flag

Bastard in love, there's no turning back
Punish your lover, and then just turn your back
Punish your future, to spite your past
Love turns to hate, with every spell you cast* you keep waiting for the love that you want to feel
But you'd never believe it when the tell you that Love is real, you keep wishing... but** my love is real
My love is real
My love is real
My love is realBastard in love, they push, you shove
There's no point in asking, you'll never know why
You run and don't listen, I sit home and cry
My heart sinks further with each of your lies***Bastard in love, I can't help what I feel
And what I feel, I'll feel to the end
There may be no right, and there may be no wrong
But ther is pain, and it always lasts too long***
