Derelict

Reveille

Prepare to meet your maker
Your unmaker, your remaker make yourself
Don't fake, you'll make the same mistakes
And if you are fed up then ask yourself whyYou sit around and pick at your scabs while your answer waits
Wake up, nobody cares about what you think
And don't blame them because you know they're just like you
And if you get this then get the fuck up
You can't remember why you can't live and you're too late tooFuck it up, derelict
Now suck it up and deal with it
Find yourself, find yourself, find yourselfSet it if you get it
All this confusion embedded in my head
Should let the dead bury the dead for good
I said, "I'm so vain", I don't understandWhy I can't just break away from tendencies that I know I should Wake up, nobody ever told you to breath
Have we forgotten everything we thought once true?
I think I'll move on
'Cuz I can't stand to lay around and decay till I'm too late tooFuck it up, derelict
Now suck it up and deal with it
Find yourself, find yourself, find yourself
Yeah[Incomprehensible]Murder me destiny
Murder me destiny
Murder me destiny
Murder me destinyMurder me destiny
Spare me the ignominy
Give up insecurity
Just be what you wanna beCompelled to procrastinate
I nearly go blind from sight
Forget it insane
I say come set it if you get it rightSet it if you get it
Set it if you get it
Set it if you get it
Set it if you get it rightSet it if you get it
Set it if you get it right
Set it if you get it
Set it if you get it rightFuck it up, derelict
Now suck it up and deal with it
Find yourself, find yourself, find yourself
Find yourself
