

Breakdown (feat. Lisa Shaw)

Miguel Migs

You don't have to tell me why
You're starting to break down now
Invitations come around
And some people wanna bring you down
Everything will come out so right
And anything you need you can find
If something's gonna change
Your memory can fade
Standing in the shade of your life
Get up up, don't breakdown, just turn around
Get up up, don't breakdown, yeah
Get up up, don't breakdown, just turn around
Get up up, don't breakdown, yeah
We don't have to just breakdown breaking down, down, down, down
We don't have to just breakdown breaking down, down, down, down
Imagination's everything
We drift into another place
Complicate you can say
Just another pretty face, yeah (just another pretty face)
The lonely days are feeling so low
When everything is coming undone
Days will come and go when you're moving kinda slow
Standing in the shade of your life
Get up up, don't breakdown, just turn around
Get up up, don't breakdown, breaking down
Get up up, don't breakdown, just turn around
Get up up, don't breakdown, yeah
We don't have to just breakdown breaking down, down, down, down
We don't have to just breakdown breaking down, down, down, down
When it comes, the time in your life
You can always change your mind
When it comes, the time in your life
You can always change your mind (you can change it)
Get up up, don't breakdown, just turn around
Get up up, don't breakdown, yeah
Get up up, don't breakdown, just turn around
Get up up, don't breakdown
Get up up, don't breakdown, just turn around
Get up up, don't breakdown, yeah
Get up up, don't breakdown, just turn around
Get up up, don't breakdown
Get on up, don't break down
Just turn around, turn around...
