Anxious Heart

Cindy Bullens

Donâ€™t mind me
Iâ€™m half crazy about you
And I donâ€™t mean to doubt you
But Ooo I got an anxious heart

But you been gone so damn long
And it seems Iâ€™ve fallen for a bad dream
It seem I got an anxious heart

Put me away, tell me I donâ€™t deserve you
Well you ainâ€™t got the nerve to woooh, woooh
I donâ€™t mind the times you lied
Itâ€™s all right,
Just come home with me tonight
And take away my anxious heart

DESIRE WIRE

Is this day wasted, or am I just feelinâ€™ blue
The rain keeps falling and I keep missing you
Got disconnected
As I tried to overcome
Losing your number
Was the worst I could have done

So won' you
Call on my desire wire
I gotta get a message to you,
To get me on the line
So I can tell you that love you still
And I need you to be mine

I know that I hurt you yeah
Well, I stepped right out of line
But itâ€™s not fair if you
Wonâ€™t let me apologize

Babe you gotta
Call on my desire wire
I gotta get a message to you, so get me on the line

So I can tell you that love you still
And I need you to be mine
