Dream Time
Abra Moore
In dream time
I sleep a thousand years
A thousand clouds
Pass through my eyes
Making sunlight disappearIn dream time
I cross to the other side
Cross the fields of gravity
Where angels like to flyhey hey
I know you and you
hey hey heyCloser
I'm getting so much closer
To the fall
Thats how i sleep at night
Between the pillows and the floor boards
Across to the other side
Along the spinning wheels of yesterdays
Where memories sometimes collideIn dream time
I will sleep a thousand years
A thousand clouds
Pass through my eyes
Making sunlight disappearCloser
I'm getting so much closer
To the fall
Closer
To the fall
Closer
To the fall
Thats how i sleep at nightA thousand clouds
And a thousand clouds
A thousand crows pull out my hair

Casting shadows upon my wall
