Normandie

Shout Out Louds

I tear my jacket off
A construction Nordic city make me sweat
I'm out and find more colors but
This blistering headache makes me wanna quit, wanna quit
And now it's said and done
Say goodbye to people we don't know
Go back to sleep
Let's sail away to the beaches of Normandie
The lights are blinding my eyes
Are you unhappy, I am unhappy too?
Your neck smells just like Hearst
And do you want someone, are you lonely to?
Are you?
And now it's said and done
Say goodbye to people we don't know
Go back to sleep
Let's sail away to the beaches of
Now it's said and done
So never mind that, never mind at all
Go back to sleep

Let's sail away to the beaches of Normandie
To Normandie
Too many secrets, too many ways
I should have called her, have I been all blind
I gave up sleep just to find your name
You stayed home I should have done the same
Now it's said and done
Say goodbye to the people we don't know
Go back to sleep
And let's sail away to the beaches of
Now it's said and done
So never mind that, never mind at all
Go back to sleep
And let's sail away to the beaches of Normandie
To Normandie
And oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, to Normandie
