Weighted Mind

Sierra Hull

If you can't see what I'm seeing
If you (fear or feel) what is to come
If you can't hear what I'm hearing
Then we may as well call it done
It's a long road that I'm walkingIts long time I'll be gone
If you won't go where I'm going
Then I'll have to go aloneChoices and changes
I'm tired of trying to be someone elseHow I wish that this was easy
How I wish all was well
But the more I let my guard down
The more to me you try to tell
It's a long road that I'm walkingIts long time I'll be gone
If you won't go where I'm going
Then I'll have to go aloneChoices and changes
I'm tired of trying to be someone elseAnd I'll sing this song if only for myself
There's no use trying to be someone else
