Moaner Snap

Reef

I'd been waiting forever
Hoping that my past catches up with me
Well hope can keep you together
But my friends I saw all I needed to seeI was always searching for you
Now I seem to find
Today already gets better
When I don't compare with another time
Like it was on the first timeLooking back at the other
Only wound tighter inside me
Now I notice the difference
Because my friends, it's there for all to seeI was fed up with complaining
It was making me so angry
Everyone has a password
And I think today is yours to find
Like it was on the first timeNew day says nothing to mind
Just like it did on theI've been with you too long
