Bye Bye Symphony

Foxy Shazam

I'm kinda sick of losing
It makes me wanna cry

It seems everything in life I try for
I'll never get before I die

But what's the point in moaning?
Oughtta leave that for the ghosts

It's better to think it through
Find the words that bring you hope

Oh hope, I need you

Life is a bitch but she's totally doable
She'll knock you around and she'll lend you a hand

Life is a bitch but she's totally doable
She may be a beauty but life is a bitch

So how do I stop the spinning?
I'm in need of more air

I'm dizzy from everyone around me winning
It just doesn't seem to be very fair

But I'll keep looking for the bright side
In the darkest hour of night

Keep an open eye to the sky
Try to find all my lost faith, yeah

Oh faith, I need you

Life is a bitch but she's totally doable
She'll knock you around and she'll lend you a hand

Life is a bitch but she's totally totally doable
She may be a beauty but life is a bitch

Bye bye symphony you were the soundtrack to my life

Bye bye symphony there are no sad songs left to write

Bye bye symphony the tears have run down gone and dried

Bye bye symphony because you waited I've finally died

Life is a bitch but she's totally doable
She'll knock you around and she'll lend you a hand

Life is a bitch but she's totally doable

She'll tell you a story but never believe
