Clear My Head

Ivy

I don't want to think about you anymore
I don't want to think about you anymore
'Cause you've been on my mind
For such an endless stretch of time
And I don't want to think about you anymoreI've got to clear my head
Of everything you ever did
Of everything you ever said
I've got to clear my head
Of everything you ever did
Of everything you ever saidI don't want to put my trust in anyone
I don't want to put my trust in anyone
'Cause nothing that I knew
Turned out to be true
And I don't want to put my trust in anyoneI've got to clear my head
Of everything you ever did
Of everything you ever said
I've got to clear my head
Of everything you ever did
Of everything you ever said
