

Strangers Here

Tenth Avenue North

I know you're tired of the hurt and the heartache.
You feel like giving in,
You feel like walking away.
And I know it's difficult,
Feeling so out of place.
But this is not how it's gonna be.
Your pain is temporary.
We're all strangers here,
So it's alright if you can't,
Stop the tears that you cry.
'Cause some day we'll touch,
The face of our God,
And the sorrow will disappear.
Until then, we're strangers here.
That's hard to hear if you want to keep chasing,
This broken world that only keeps your heart breaking.
So if you're scared 'cause you think you're missing out,
This is not the ending.
No, this is not the ending.
We're all strangers here,
So it's alright if you can't,
Stop the tears that you cry.
'Cause some day we'll touch,
The face of our God,
And the sorrow will disappear.
Until then, we're strangers here.
This is not the homeland.
We can see the lights from here.
He's making a city,
Where there are no fears.
And it's drawing near.
Until then, we're strangers here.
We're just strangers here.
We're all strangers here,
So it's alright if you can't,
Stop the tears that you cry.
'Cause some day we'll touch,
The face of our God,
And the sorrow will disappear.

Until then, we're strangers here.
Strangers here.
