Mass Confusion

Tarkan

I'm running out of patience
I need a vacation
Cause all the frustration is rising
I'm getting irritated
Can't feel any sensation
But all this aggravation inside me
It's enough to make somebody go crazy
I better make somebody my babyShout
Tell me the way you're feeling
Out
No matter what you're hearing
Loud
There's not enough love and caring anywhere
Shout
Just when you think you lose it
Out
Love's gonna get you through it
Loud Through all the mass confusion everywhereI'm looking for some passion
I want a reaction
But all the distraction is growing
Whenever you discover we need one another
We need one another
You'll know it
It's enough to make somebody go crazy
I better make somebody my babyShout
Tell me the way you're feeling
Out
No matter what you'e hearing
Loud
There's not enough love and caring anywhere
Shout
Just when you think you lose it
Out
Love's gonna get you through it
Loud Through all the mass confusion everywhereI know I'm tripping out
Too much to think about lately
I'm slipping off the track
I gotta deal with that too
I'm overanalyzed, digitized, terrorized

Over merchandised, paralyzed
What should I do?
What should I do?
It's enough to make somebody go crazy[Chorus]
