

Will The Guns Come Out

Hanni El Khatib

Will the guns come out, out, out
Oh will the guns come out and play today Oh will the guns come out, out, out
Oh will the guns come out and play today Oh will the guns come out, out, out
Oh will the guns come out and play today Oh will the guns come out, out, out
Oh will the guns come out and play today Will you lose that job that you don't love
Or will the lord come down and save your fate Will your woman go and cheat behind your back
And will your best friend lie right to your face Will you put down money that you don't have
Will you go and gamble that life away Will you lose that love that you always had
And they people you look up to every day Oh will the guns come out, out, out
Oh will the guns come out and play today Oh will the guns come out, out, out
Oh will the guns come out and play today Oh will the guns come out, out, out
Oh will the guns come out and play today Oh will the guns come out, out, out
Oh will the guns come out and play today
