Broken Social Scene

Check itDisappear like I come in your world Five is a number that I dream about It looks like it could've been time But that is a word that I dream aboutDon't forget to follow your way down Oh, I think you'd like your life when you came down Oh, I love the lights that don't turn you to face it Oh, you can marry my mom but you can't get the feelDisappear like a corner in the wall Five is a number that I dream about Sleep looks like a mescaline sun But calm is a word that I dream aboutDon't forget to follow your way down Oh, I think you'd like your life when you came down Oh, I love the lights that don't turn you to face it Oh, you can marry my mom but, but you can't get the feelOn time (On time) On time (On time)[Incomprehensible]
