Armageddon

Tom Gabel

Look, I never fail to turn up my weakness
I supply teachers and musical genius, I should write speeches
Father, forgive me, I sin with the women
I'm a prince with the vision but a king with the written
If the world don't end when I drop my verse
I'll check myself in and play doctor, nurse
I married beat, that's a rap with urb
My family, I adopted words
Yeah, so there ain't no quitter in me
I'ma bring home the bags while I'm living in T, yeah
I take sugars but not, I mean sweet
Just a living nightmare or another strange dream
Yeah, that's the ways about doin' it
My chicks stare and always I'm now doin' it
So till the day that I live in the sky
I'll make sure that I'm livin' on sky, turn the voice
There ain't no liar in me, just fire in me
I don't know how to quit, blame the tryer in me
And I've been spittin' fire on beats
And only now you're noticin' me?
Nah, this ain't make belief, I'ma make you believe
Openin' the doors so that everyone can see, yeah
Anytime me and Wretch are on the beat
Armageddon
Apply the class that I travel on the plane to my lifestyle
Business first and the jet's my speed
Compete with whom, my names, my league
Right now I'm trying to win against me, so I don't mind defeat
I get it on when it's crunch time
I let the beat punch and then punch line
Let the single pop when it's chart time
A bag of success, bullets loaded
And next year I'ma Matrix Reloaded
Let the pricks all tell me who the one is
Not even that I care who's the best
If I never done well
You might have never heard the rest
Might duppy a song with missiorettes
I might hop on stage with JLS

Like who's gonna send for me next
Straight cash come in, I take check
There ain't no liar in me, just fire in me
I don't know how to quit, blame the tryer in me
And I've been spittin' fire on beats
And only now you're noticin' me?
Nah, this ain't make belief, I'ma make you believe
Openin' the doors so that everyone can see, yeah
Anytime me and Wretch are on the beat
Armageddon
Bring out the guns
Make sure your ready for what's goin' down
Bring down the storm, bring down them rain
Get underneath this, bring down the pain
It doesn't matter, night or day
I will love in every way
It's just the fire in me yeah, yeah
And there ain't no liar in me
There ain't no liar in me, just fire in me
I don't know how to quit, blame the tryer in me
And I've been spittin' fire on beats
And only now you're noticin' me?
Nah, this ain't make belief, I'ma make you believe
Openin' the doors so that everyone can see, yeah
Anytime me and Wretch are on the beat
Armageddon
