Lovelorn (acoustic Version)

Threshold

if i coerced you, you would follow me i can see into your mind can you see me i can look at you and move you physically i'm not the only one i cannot behow can i touch you when i feel that you would break how can i talk to you when noise is all you make am i the only one who isn't deaf and blind i am so lovelorn it would blow your tiny mindi must control my own ability i want your friendship offered willingly if i could shut out all this noise it would be fine if i reveal my secret would you be a friend of minehow can i touch you when i feel that you would break
i am so lovelorn it would blow your tiny mind
