

Hell's Gates Are Opened

Unlord

[The gathering of the legion of the gladiator] Hell's gates are opened
The church downfall, the burning of Rome
An offer to be made, to the false one dethroned
Reckless winds, storm the nights
Which tests the earth in its final fight
The serpent's rise, the fall of christ
Mercy is banned, as the last will die
Unholy war is spawn in this night
In the morning the blood is frozen of those who died
Hell's gates are opened
Hell hath no fury, praise the lord unknown
In utterly deep madness, thy king is overthrown
Deranged are the christians, as the pale lord rises
Unchained wicked demons, the slaughter god's arrived
The beggars kneel and pray for death
The sword of hell takes his head
Master, I summon thee, I usually do
Whenever we need evil, we need you
Hell's gates are opened
Call forth! The sixth and seventh gardian Cerberus and Shub Niggurath await The gates of hell exposed as sacrificial overdose
Commandments sworn by those who failed their way
Come forth and cleanse the world in a fallout of decay
