Jack the Stripper

Nekromantix

sexual frustrated & soaked with sweat jack is sneaking through the streets of the city jet set the fog is getting thick, the man is getting strong open up baby oh it wont take longjack the stripper is back again blinded by his manhood
babe you wont feel a thing jack the stripper is back again dont know who he'll do next dont know where or when
jack the stripper is back again
dont know who he'll do next dont know where or whenwaiting in the alley of a dead end street sticky walls echoing his heavy heartbeat excited with the sound from her high heel shoes now this s jack's game, woman you will always losejack the stripper is back again
blinded by his manhood
dont know where or when
jack the stripper is back again
dont know where or when(jack the stripper)jack the stripper is back again
jack the stripper is back again
dont know where or when(jack the stripper, is back again)his naked body he just needs to expose and the girls of the streets no ones misses he knows he does what he has to and then he vanish without a trace the last thing she saw was jack's ugly grinning facejack the stripper is back again
blinded by his manhood
dont know where or when
jack the stripper is back again
