

Where Are the Boys

Stefy

I'll make a hurricane in Ohio
Coming down your street, knocking down your door
'Cause the more winder like a top
That's about to spin out of control
Where are the boys, it's like I'm a call that's gone up for a ride
Without a try for inside, can't you see that
I'm just like a kite when the wind slows I fall crashing to the ground
'Cause I'ma lonely now
Can somebody give me a clue, where are the boys?
I'm broken like a toy, where are the boys?
I'm like a Godzilla in Tokyo
I get you on me out, but don't you know
When this girl needs love, yeah, she can't be stopped
So put your heads up scare and let's go
Where are the boys, it's like I'm a call that's gone up for a ride
Without a try for inside, can't you see that
I'm just like a kite when the wind slows I fall crashing to the ground
'Cause I'ma lonely now
Can somebody give me a clue, where are the boys?
I'm broken like a toy, where are the boys?
They've been destroyed, I'm so annoyed
Where are the boys, tell me
I'll make a hurricane in Ohio
Coming down your street
Knocking down your door
Where are the boys, it's like I'm a call that's gone up for a ride
Without a try for inside, can't you see that
I'm just like a kite when the wind slows I fall crashing to the ground
'Cause I'ma lonely now
Can somebody give me a clue, where are the boys?
I'm broken like a toy, where are the boys?
They've been destroyed, I'm so annoyed
Where are the boys?
Lost in my head, they play hard to get
They just make a mess playing video games
They hide it nowhere, it caused a mess up
Over the pervert, so I'm still alone
