

Last, First

Hooray For Earth

Socialite, for the night and take me out
Oversight, wouldn't try to pick me back up 'cause you find it in my eyes
Sunlight, fading torrent, my hands broken
Sometimes, waiting for it is why I'm eroding
I was acting over-the-line, saying you were mine
Crying a lonely laugh
I was acting over-the-line, saying you were mine
I'll find it on my own
Socialite, for the night and take me out
Do you violate my path?
Oversight, wouldn't try to make me up again
Yeah, you cry it out so fine
Do you find it in my eyes?
I was acting over-the-line, saying you were mine
Crying a lonely laugh
I was acting over-the-line, saying you were mine
I'll find it on my own
Say you will hope then
Crying a lonely laugh
I was acting over-the-line
Saying you were mine
I'll find it on my own
So much dark embrace
She sees me open every door
Words are caught in space, the air
So much dark embrace
She sees me open every door
Words are caught in space, in the air
So much dark embrace,
Could it be she's opened every word
Words are caught in space, in the air
