Beanbag

Roll back your mind you will see things forgotten
So here you stand left to fight feel forgotten?
Trigger sadness until you see bad happiness
A second lapse of this instance takes the pain of this
A falling in of the only love you had
Tries to steal the things you made from the only thing you owned in your lifeWe will never pull through alone
So you might have remembered your baggage
Trigger sadness until you see bad happiness
A second lapse of this instance takes the pain of this
A falling in of the only love you had
Tries to steal the tings you made from the only thing you owned in your lifeWe will never pull through alone
Let go and He'll find you alone
I've never felt love before
He will call out to you
I'll never feel love
He will call
He will call out to you
I'll never feel
He willWe will never pull through alone
Let go and He'll find you find you alone
I've never felt love before
He will call out to you
I'll never feel love
He will call
I've never felt loved
He will call out to you
I'll never feel
He will
