

One Day You Will

Lady Antebellum

You feel like youre falling backwards
Like youre slippin through the cracks
Like no one would even notice
If you left this town and never came back You walk outside and all you see is rain
You look inside and all you feel is pain
And you cant see it now But down the road the sun is shining
In every cloud theres a silver lining
Just keep holding on
(Just keep holding on) And every heartache makes you stronger
But it wont be much longer
Youll find love, youll find peace
And the you youre meant to be
I know right now thats not the way you feel
But one day you will You wake up every morning and ask yourself
What am I doing here anyway
With the weight of all those disappointments
Whispering in your ear Youre just barely hanging by a thread
You wanna scream but youre down to your last breath
And you dont know it yet But down the road the sun is shining
In every cloud theres a silver lining
Just keep holding on
(Just keep holding on) And every heartache makes you stronger
But it wont be much longer
Youll find love, youll find peace
And the you youre meant to be
I know right now thats not the way you feel
But one day you will Find the strength to rise above
You will
Find just what youre made of, youre made of Down the road the sun is shining
In every cloud theres a silver lining
Just keep holding on
(Just keep holding on) And every heartache makes you stronger
But it wont be much longer
Youll find love, youll find peace
And the you youre meant to be
I know right now thats not the way you feel
I know right now thats not the way you feel
But one day you will
One day you will, oh, one day you will
