

Under A Silver Moon

God Dethroned

Holy Maria, God's delight, destined to bring his only son
But I am the servant of Sodom and I discovered her secret desires
In the dead of the night she slips away, tired of Josef - the miserable fuck
She knows I am always there, so satisfy her needs...A bastard son will be born, arisen from my demon seed
A divine assassination by Gods guardian angels
But the angels fear to come near, they'd vanish in flames and they know...
Until they hunt me down, I ruin God's master planCopulating MariaShe looks at me with her eyes full of desire
I smell the perfume of her flesh as she's undressed
I feel her body tremble as I touch her breastsCopulating MariaThe silver light shines on her maiden's pride
Under a silver moon , in a silent night under a silver moon , Our love never dies[lead - Henri] [lead - Jens]Josef screams in anger when he discovers her being pregnant
How could it happen? I don't know how to fuck!
It's a gift from god, it must be.
