

Frequent Flyer

Chromeo

Have you ever met a frequent flyer
Dressed in all white attire
Sipping on a Gray's Papaya
Wanna take you higherJet lag, you must be tired
Watch out, you might misfire
Anything your heart desires
Wanna take you higherInfluential, moving past your security
Presidential, real utensils, priorityOne two three
You and me
Can you move at my velocity
Don't miss a beat
First class seat upon my fleetWhen you hear the beat
When you feel the need
Turn the cabin pressure on
Hurry, 'cause I'll soon be gone
My instincts never lie
And you're right up my aisle
I'll be yours and you'll be mine
Put the freak in the frequent flyerYup, it's the boy with glasses
Giving you boarding passes
And if the flight's delayed
You might miss all your morning classesTrust me girl, you look dashing
Even with your seatbelt fastened
Are you into fashion
Cause I noticed our outfits are matchingInfluential, moving past your security
Presidential, real utensils, priorityOne two three
You and me
Can you move at my velocity
Don't miss a beat
First class seat upon my fleet
Ladies and gentlemen, this is your captain speaking
We'd like to welcome you on board this flight 777 to Minneapolis
Flight duration is around three hours, fifteen minutes
We're expecting a fairly smooth ride, maybe a couple bumps
Once airborne, the flight crew will be coming around the cabin serving drinks
Local time is 6:35 pm, the weather is clear skies
Once again, thank you for traveling
Sit back, relax, and enjoy the flightOne two three
You and me

Can you move at my velocity
Don't miss a beat
First class seat upon my fleet One two three
You and me
Can you move at my velocity
Don't miss a beat
First class seat upon my fleet
