

Epiphany (I'm Leaving)

Chrisette Michele

And then it comes to me like an epiphany

Its over...over

Its over...over

[Verse 1]

Second night in a row

You didnt come home

I'm watching my phone

Waiting for it to ring

Sittin in the house on the couch with the TV on

All night all alone

Every time same old thing

[Chorus]

So I think im just about over being your girlfriend (girlfriend)

Im leaving, im leaving (leaving)

No more wonderin what you've been doin

Where you been sleeping

(its over)

I'm leaving (it's over)

I'm leaving

[Verse 2]

So you walk in

The next morning

To find me smiling,

Like nothing ever happened

You give me some excuse

Like you always do

I just kiss your cheek

And this is what I tell you (you, you)

[Chorus]

So I think im just about over being your girlfriend (your girlfriend)

Im leaving, im leaving

No more wonderin what you've been doin

Where you been sleeping

(its over)
I'm leaving (it's over)
I'm leaving

[Bridge]
How many times did I fall for your lies
How many times did I sit home and cry
Never questioning why? why? why? why?
It just came to me
Like an epiphany
How about if I just leave-e-e-e

[Chorus]
So I think im just about over being your girlfriend (your girlfriend)
Im leaving, im leaving
No more wonderin what you've been doin
Where you been sleeping
(its over)
I'm leaving (it's over)
I'm leaving
